Who is it suitable for?

For dry hair that breaks easily or tends to form split ends for various reasons, such as low sebum production, use of unsuitable products, aggressive chemical treatments, and/or thermal stress.

For those who want deeply hydrated and soft hair.

What does it contain and what it does?

Deep Infusion contains:

- Quaternary conditioning polymers for a soft, deeply hydrated, and shiny hair.
- Argan Oil and Flaxseed Oil that deeply nourish hair.

Maintenance at home

Use of the classic Nashi Argan line, made up of Shampoo, Conditioner, Deep Infusion, Instant, and Oil is recommended.

FAQ

- How often can I repeat the treatment? Once a week.
- Is it suitable for an oily scalp as well?
 The treatment is not recommended for fine hair and/or oily scalps. Instead, we recommend the Mass Booster and Energy Starter treatments.
- How soon can I expect to begin seeing results?

The effects are immediate, with continuous improvement over time.
